MTSU

ADMINISTRATIVELY—under the helm of a new president, new ideas, new plans

PHYSICALLY—possessing a greatly expanded, and still expanding, physical plant

ACADEMICALLY—upward bound, emphasizing both academic and non-academic learning, learning about subjects and learning about people

CREATIVELY—outstanding, guiding and encouraging the development of talents, demanding the best, and for the most part, getting it

ENCOURAGING total participation in the life of the University, in sports, student government, clubs, or whatever, realizing that the truly well-rounded citizen must be involved in more than one area

FULL of people—students, instructors, administrative personnel, friendly, understanding, interested, enthusiastic, with a unique spirit born of a myriad of interests, backgrounds and personalities, all combining to form one entity, MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY.

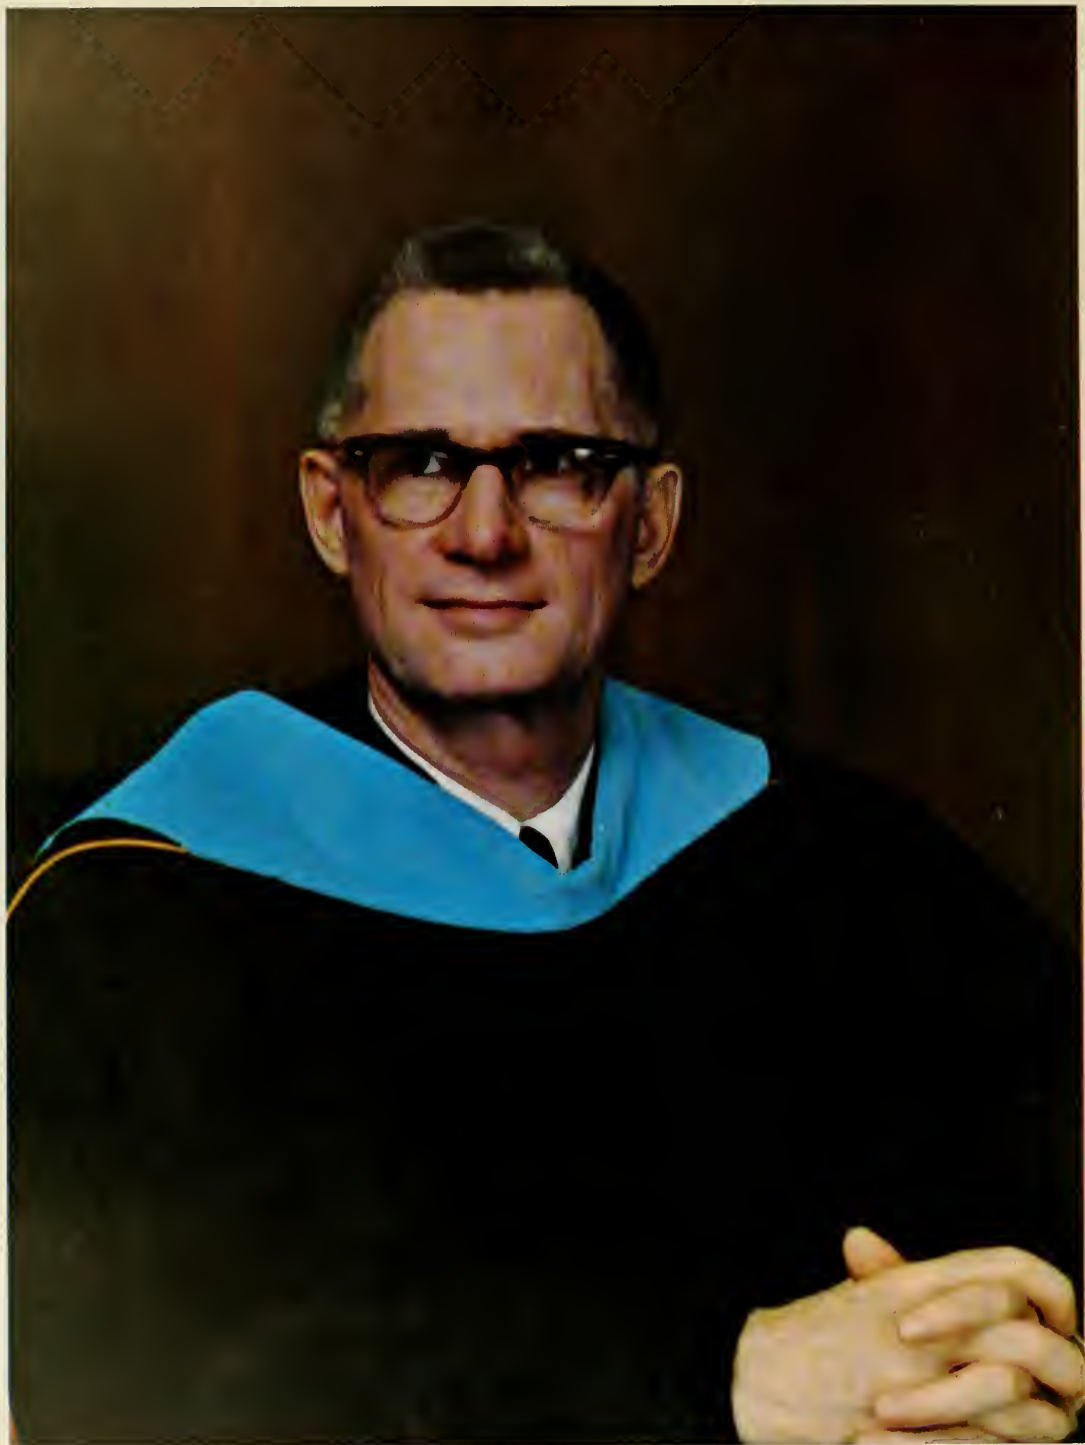

ACADEMICS

Dr. M. G. Scarlett and his family: Jon Barry, Nancy, David, and Mrs. Scarlett.

MTSU WELCOMES DR. M. G. SCARLETT AS NEW HEAD

Dr. and Mrs. Scarlett were welcomed early in the Fall by members of the ASB at a reception held in their honor.

Along with Fall, October brought to MTSU an enthusiastic, Pennsylvania-born yankee to occupy the position of University President vacated by Dr. Quill E. Cope last summer. From the first, Dr. Scarlett indicated that he was impressed with the University—and the University returned this feeling for the man who so ably has assumed the gigantic task of acquainting himself with all aspects of Middle Tennessee State University.

A native of Reading, Pennsylvania, Dr. Scarlett received his undergraduate degree at Catawba College, his M.A. at the University of Florida, and his doctorate at Oklahoma State University. Immediately prior to his appointment at MTSU, Dr. Scarlett served as interim Chancellor of Farmington State College, Maine's University system.

The soft-spoken President summed up his plans for MTSU in the concluding words of his address to the University faculty early in October. "I think that Middle Tennessee State University is a good, young university. I hope that we are going to become an outstanding university." For its growth, it is to be hoped that the university will dedicate itself to meeting the needs of its students, aiming at the development of a "climate of excellence" in all areas of university life.

At present Dr. Scarlett is concerned mainly with adjusting to the campus and the community, as hopefully they are adjusting to him. With the present as an indication, it seems likely that all will go well in the future.

Coach "Bubber" Murphy and Dr. Scarlett welcome another Yankee to the Southland: new head football coach Don Fuoss of Purdue.

ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. Margaret Wright and some of her talented Sacred Harp Singers at the Tennessee Folk Festival in Johnson City.

Mr. Horace Beasley coaches a future member of MTSU's superb Band of Blue.

Physics Department instructors gather for a conference.

Mr. VanderWeg ponders an art problem.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Few students escape the School of Arts and Sciences on their trip through college. Encompassing the disciplines of science, languages, social sciences, mathematics, and speech and theatre, the school offers courses for basic study as well as being preparatory for a teaching career in one of its fields. Under the able head of Dr. Clay Tucker, the school has grown considerably over the past few years; a special example of this is the growth of the once almost non-existent Bachelor of Arts program.

The eternity of these freshman themes . . .

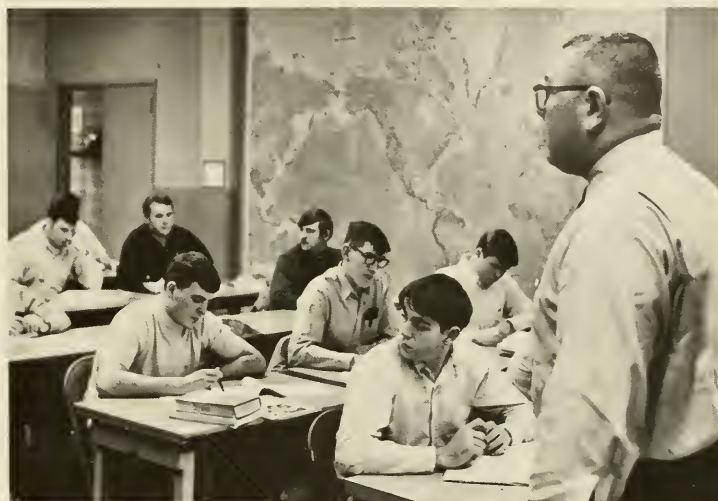

Secretarial students learn the ins and outs of every type of business machine.

Through much trial and error, photography students become aware of the proper procedures for arriving at good prints.

Captain Gorman guides Military Science students through the problems of the army.

Mr. Chance is quick to aid students when problems arise.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

MTSU's School of Business and Industry amply prepares a student to take his place in the business world. The curriculum is such that the business graduate more than meets the basic requirements for a person seeking employment in the fields of business and industry. The school's course of study encompasses the areas of accounting, agriculture, business administration, business education, economics, industrial arts, and military science.

Dr. Sakas utilizes discussion period for probing education problems.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The School of Education is charged with the important task of preparing Tennessee's teachers. Although it touches all departments on campus through its secondary education minor program, the school itself offers courses designed to acquaint the future teacher with the profession of teaching from the inside, and, perhaps, it serves to warn these future guiders of youth of some of the problems they are letting themselves in for. In addition to placing practice teachers in area schools, the university operates a campus school, under the direction of the Department of Education, which serves as a valuable laboratory for MTSU education students.

Upchurch, Patrick Langdon, Harry Drivas, Jasper Thurman, Bahman Sohrabi. Fourth Row: Katherine Rogers West, James Michael O'Bryan, Charles Perry, Tony Carmen, John Evans, Billy Strawn.

Elmo Hamner is just one of the many graduate students who both teach and attend classes. 19

SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

MTSU's School of Graduate Studies is a relatively new addition to the university curriculum; but, it is a rapidly expanding one. Offering graduate work in mathematics, health and physical education, history, and English, the school has added a new aspect to the university. Graduate students who work as departmental assistants are a familiar sight on campus. Students who are employed and who live in the area are able to return for an advanced degree, as are those whose family duties leave them with some "leisure" time. This school evidences the overall concern of the university for a better informed, better educated populace.

An Inner Restlessness

Fall brought with it a feeling of energy, a disturbing commotion on campus. Still restless from summer vacations or jobs or school, the first few days of the fall semester evidenced an attempt at settling down to the old pursuit of getting educated. Yet, in this very attempt at settling down, there was a bustling about campus and an eagerness and enthusiasm which was apparent throughout, in student and instructor alike. Thoughts and ideas were once again being stirred up as MTSU welcomed back its people.

Members of the university community returned to discover an aura of change on the campus—not merely the growing physical plant. Students brought with them a growing concern for their university, a concern with its place in the South and as an American institution of higher education. Seniors seemed almost obsessed with opening up a wedge of liberalism in school policy so that they might leave MTSU with the potential of becoming a truly great university. Freshman enthusiasm was channeled beyond typical freshman pursuits, and the members of this class also played a part in the new MTSU. The entire university was infused with an air of expectancy.

The Perils and Frustrations of Registration

For some, it was the first time—and confusing; for others, it was the last—and perhaps not quite so confusing? Nonetheless, over 6,000 students poured 60,000 cards into MTSU's computer system, the use of which has sped up the registration process considerably over the past few years. Knowing this, however, did nothing to console students registering at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, with the board a mass of red cellophane. Seniors played the if-I-don't-get-this-course-I-don't-graduate game, while underclassmen resignedly hoped for better luck in the future.

Top: The window! Only to learn that it is impossible to get everything done in one place. Bottom: After having finally been admitted to the card bank, this student was frustrated to learn that all those courses that he desperately needed and weren't closed had been dropped, so he searches again for something.

ASB: Total Participation

From its planning sessions at Hy-Lake, through Freshman orientation and fall elections, to being dunked to raise money for the Senior class, the members of the Associated Student Body followed a policy of total participation, total involvement. The ASB not only reached out into all areas of campus life, but urged that all students become involved in some way in MTSU, putting their talents to the best use possible for the betterment of the University community and themselves.

Left: Students lined up in the University Center to cast their ballots in the ASB-run Homecoming elections in late October. Right: Speaker of the Senate Doug Bennett gleefully and very successfully dunked Speaker of the House Pat O'Neal to help the senior class raise funds for Homecoming.

Campus Night Introduced Campus Organizations

To the incoming Freshman or transfer student, the vast array of MTSU's clubs, organizations, fraternal groups, etc., is indeed confusing. To acquaint these students with the various extracurricular groups existing on our campus, the ASB sponsors a Club Night annually; none have been any more successful than this year's. Gathered in one room were such incongruous groups as a precision drill team, a Baptist student group, a women's honor society, a Rodeo club, social sororities and fraternities, Nixon supporters, senioritas, and sheiks. For the first time, music was provided in the form of "The Regence." Out of the general confusion came a successful venture, and those who did not become members of an organization at least had an interesting evening.

Top: "The Regence" provided swinging entertainment for Club Night par-
Young Republicans demonstrated their enthusiastic support for Mr. Nixon.
Right: A skin-diving enthusiast explained diving techniques to interested "club shoppers."

Slacks, Bonfires, and TISL

1968-69 brought stimulation to the MTSU campus by means of several "controversies," ranging from expression of political ideas in the November elections to the barely unsuccessful attempt of the student congress to renovate itself by becoming a unicameral body. Looking back, the issues themselves may not prove to have been of such earth-shattering importance as was their effect on the university community. The student body as a whole, and not just the usual few, participated—thought, felt, and acted—and MTSU benefited.

Left to Right, Top: ASB officials got a firsthand look at the workings of the legislature at the Tennessee Intercollegiate State Legislature. Meeting in a mock session, the youth of Tennessee were able to propose legislation to be presented to the General Assembly so that legislators could see what the college students of Tennessee were concerned with. Bottom: Re-evaluation of dress regulations . . . and a student evaluation of the faculty were two of the main concerns of the ASB in '68, '69.

Biggest 'Big Name Entertainment' Ever

The work of the Student Affairs Committee in the area of Big Name Entertainment was unsurpassed this year. Opening with the Freshman Week presentation of "The Platters," MTSU's slate of performers was added to by a fabulous Homecoming spectacular which included the "Mar-Keys," "Bar-Kays," Rufus and Carla Thomas, and Mitch Ryder. December brought Martha Reeves and the Vandellas and Willie Mitchell to the Raider gym, for what was later called the "biggest ASB Fun Night—ever!" The final show of the season highlighted the talents of Curtis Mayfield and "The Impressions" in a greatly enjoyed concert.

Below: ASB officials manned the ticket counter . . . for "Martha and the Vandellas." P. 97, Left: Rufus and Carla Thomas . . . and Mitch Ryder and his "Detroit Wheels" turned on the talent for enthusiastic Homecoming audiences. Right: Willie Mitchell and group hooked their audience with little trouble, Bottom: "The Platters" proved their fabulous showmanship in a superb fall concert.

Relationships are a most vital part of any college student's life. He thrives on the companionship of his own and of the opposite sex, searching for a sense of belonging. Family relationships are important, and he keeps in touch. He finds that there are those instructors who are not merely the givers of grades, but who are interesting and interested friends and advisors, carefully concerned with cultivating budding intellectuals. He searches out these relationships, and those that are cemented during these years—in quiet discussions, heated bull sessions, or over a Coke—last beyond graduation, if only in memories.

Let There Be Music . . .

. . . and MTSU's talented musical organizations obliged. By their superb performances these enthusiastic musicians evidenced the high degree of professionalism that the music department is continually noted for. These gifted students provided the campus and surrounding area with a musical variety ranging from hymns and folk songs of the Sacred Harp Singers and the traditional concert repertoire of the University-Community Orchestra and Concert Choir, to the popular and highly stylized music of the Phi Mu Alpha stage band.

It didn't rain. The parade was one of the best ever, with fantastically ingenious floats and beautiful girls everywhere.

The fans flocked into Horace Jones Field to watch the Raiders battle it out with the Baby Vols, and they then enjoyed a halftime show of music and marching, climaxed by the coronation of Miss Marjory Walker as Queen. Later in the evening, Homecoming audiences enjoyed the enthusiastic performances of Rufus and Carla Thomas and Mitch Ryder and "The Detroit Wheels," and students and alums alike ended up a fabulous Homecoming weekend to the music of the "Mar-Keys" and the "Bar-Kays.

Top to Bottom: . . . an informal chat in the grill . . . a relaxing (?) game of flag football . . . concentration on the cards, with plenty of kibitzers . . . "which one? . . . silent perusal of The Sidelines.

Relaxation

MTSU certainly offers a wide variety of organized activities for its students to become involved in, but there are times when these need to be left behind. Often the harried college student needs to put them aside and concentrate on anything, or nothing. What constitutes relaxation for one individual may seem like work for another. One will play cards or pool, while another will exhaust himself physically in a rowdy game of flag football, and still another will tackle Shakespeare, for enjoyment rather than assignment. Whatever the method, all help in combatting that hectic, harried feeling.

Students Battle Construction, Weather

MTSU has been in the process of building up her physical plant—and this is good. But students, trudging miles around fenced-off areas, through mud and slush created by the inclement weather, probably have wondered if the process couldn't be speeded up a bit. Then too, the perils of walking to class do not end with the completion of a building and sunshine; students find themselves being sprinkled with artificial showers designed to help grow grass where mud once was. And life is even more perilous for those in the older buildings whose functions changed abruptly, as the sign below testifies.

Greeks Add Spice To University Life

As MTSU's fraternities and sororities "went national" this year, even non-Greeks realized the beneficial role these organizations have played on campus since they were first introduced. They are secret societies—but members openly gave of their time entertaining patients at the Veterans Hospital and working all night answering phones and collecting money for the Cerebral Palsy Telethon. They threw some wild parties—but they also gave some pretty good ones, clowning around for the children enrolled in Head Start and enjoying every minute of the ASB Christmas Party for the Good Shepherd Home. Their members pulled their weight in all aspects of University life, even making their presence felt, kindly, in the community.

The drabness of the winter season was somewhat brightened as MTSU couples gathered in the Tennessee Room for the annual Mid-Winter Formal. The evening gave busy students a chance to relax and enjoy dancing to the music of Louis Brown and his Orchestra. Tau Omicron's second annual ALL-SING saw trophies awarded to Lambda Psi Fraternity in the men's division, the Home Economics Club in the women's division, and the Wesley Foundation in the mixed competition. Although it was a nervous evening for the performers, the audience enjoyed the whole program, which gave them a chance to hear everything from the romantic tones of Alpha Delta Pi's "Love Is Blue" medley to the Spanish Club's rousing version of "La Bamba," to Sigma Nu's ca-rousing rendition of "We are the men of Sigma Nu."

MTSU's People Create

The ability to create, to take the basic fundamentals of a subject and apply them to the formation of something broader, is a wonderful thing. MTSU is not lacking in talented people—in the arts, drama, music—and these gifted persons are encouraged in their pursuits.

Whether it is transforming sticks and paper into mountains and hills, or transforming the printed word into something beautifully audible, or even seeing the world in a slightly different way, MTSU's people create.

Top to Bottom: Mountains from a roll of paper . . . silent contemplation and appreciation . . . dance! . . . what's in a face . . .

A Moment of Anticipation: And Then, The First Miss M.T.S.U.

After two nights of tension—and fun—Kappa Alpha-sponsored Connie O'Connell was crowned MISS MTSU of 1969. As is the usual case, the judges had a difficult decision to make, seeking from among the seventeen contestants the one girl who displayed the greatest amount of poise, personality, beauty, and talent. Selected by the contestants themselves, the Miss Congeniality award went to Ginger Brooks. Dave Overton of WSM once again delighted the Pageant audience with his ready wit—which also aided somewhat in diminishing the "butterflies" for Pageant participants.

On The Inside Looking Out

It was an endless winter. It seemed an eternity until Spring decided to burst in, but it did. Unfortunately, with the arrival of the flowers came showers—of papers, tests, and all the various end-of-the-year assignments that instructors seem to delight in handing out, just as the weather becomes a deterrent to constructive thinking. So, the student studied, and read, and wrote, savoring the knowledge that when all his work was done, his instructors would be sitting inside, gazing wistfully out the window, and working.

Mostly, MTSU Is People

And all different, thank goodness.
 All distinct individuals, with distinct personalities and habits.
 Enthusiastic. Energetic. Each one unique.
 Optimistic. Pessimistic. Each contributing the best and worst of himself to the total university personality, making it unique.
 People just being themselves.

Warm Weather Laziness, Finals

After the long, wet winter season, the coming of warmer weather brought out the lackadaisical in just about everybody. A sort of listlessness prevailed on campus, especially in those Friday afternoon classes when minds seemed to be tuned to anything except Chaucer or the anatomy of the earthworm. The tennis courts suddenly became heavily populated as MTSU gentlemen and coeds alike turned out to show off some of that form . . .

... acquired in rained-out tennis classes. But the threat of finals compelled many a student to seek out knowledge, and the library and the lounges filled with students studying—or attempting to. Some, however, managed to combine the pleasures of summer weather with the acquisition of knowledge by retreating to the comfort of the many campus trees.

Graduation swiftly followed, and MTSU turned several hundred eager graduates loose on the world, all taking a part of MTSU with them, but all of them leaving behind a little bit of themselves also.

Zeta Psi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi began in March of 1965 and was chartered by May of that year. With a rapidly growing membership, Alpha Kappa Psi has become one of the university's distinguished professional organizations. Open to business administration and business education majors, the group's objectives include promotion of business administration courses on the university level and the fostering of further development of research in the field. Alpha Kappa Psi assists in the development of a professional program which hopefully results in developing a well-rounded university graduate of business administration and business education. Programs this year have been high-lighted by guest speakers such as Bill White of Ernst & Ernst and Dennis Driscoll of International Paper Company. The group visited Genesco and attended regional conferences in Biloxi, Mississippi and Atlanta, Georgia. Officers for the year are: Tim Ellis, President; Terry Uselton, Vice-President; Stanley Spraker, Secretary; and Gene Duncan, Treasurer.

ALPHA MU GAMMA

Delta Rho, the MTSU chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma, recognizes outstanding French, German, and Spanish students. Invitations to join are issued to students who have a 4.0 average for three semesters of foreign language in addition to a 3.0 cumulative average. The spring initiation is followed by a banquet. The organization has grown this year with the creation of a major in French, Spanish, and German. Alpha Mu Gamma hopes to further better international relations through the study of foreign language. Officers of Alpha Mu Gamma include: Russell Willis, President; Toni Flynn, Vice-President; Cheryl Bible, Secretary; Phyllis McConnell, Treasurer; and Linda Worden, ASB Representative.

Jackie Crowover explains what journalism is all about.

Alpha Phi Gamma recognizes those students making significant contributions to the three MTSU student publications, namely Collage, the Sidelines, and the Midlander. These students hold such major positions as editor or business manager or have worked at least two semesters in a minor staff position. Hard-working, these students put in long hours with no reward except that of personal satisfaction and hopefully student appreciation; Alpha Phi Gamma is the official recognition of their time and talents. This organization is concerned with improving journalism at MTSU. To this end there is much "friendly" intra-publication criticism among the members. The organization hopes to improve all three publications and to involve as many students as possible in their production. Alpha Phi Gamma further serves as a link for the student with his professional counterpart.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

A just and worthy reward for those students who have shown outstanding talent and dedication in theatre is membership in Alpha Psi Omega. To be eligible for this honor, a candidate must have earned a minimum of one-hundred hours work in three areas of play production. These areas include set design, set construction, play management, directing, costuming, lighting, make-up, and acting. In addition, the Lambda Gamma Cast, Middle Tennessee's chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, is intensely concerned with stimulating the general student's interest in dramatic activities so that he too may learn of the enjoyment such activities give. Officers include: Keith Bronder, President; Phyllis Murphy, Vice-President; Penelope Gordon, Secretary-Treasurer.

Biology students spend many long hours in the lab.

Beta Beta Beta, an organization relatively new to our campus, maintains and promotes excellence and interest in Biology at MTSU. An affiliate of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, this organization meets bi-monthly and has a bi-annual induction of members. Membership qualifications are a 2.7 cumulative average and sophomore status. Tri-Beta's purpose is stimulation of sound scholarship; dissemination of scientific knowledge; and promotion of biological research. The membership has participated in the District convention as well as having attended many lectures of biological interest. Officers for the year are: Sharon Patton, President; Linda Trent, Vice-President; Helen Williams, Secretary; Rodema Douglas, Historian; and Carol Hannah, ASB Representative.

Omicron Psi Chapter of Delta Omicron has achieved much since its formation in 1965. Membership is open to women majoring in music who have attained a 3.0 average in music and a 2.5 cumulative average. The objectives of the organization are the appreciation of good music, the encouragement of women in the composing field, and the creation of an interest in the music of American composers. Delta Omicron meets monthly and sponsors monthly musicals. The organization rendered service at various departmental programs, caroled at Dillon Nursing Home, and sponsored an open musical in conjunction with Phi Mu Alpha. The officers for the year are: Gayle Sadler, President; Kathleen Anderson, 1st Vice-President; Donna McCafferty, 2nd Vice-President; Brenda Anderson, Secretary; and Betty Morton, Treasurer.

DELTA TAU ALPHA

The purpose of Delta Tau Alpha is to promote and recognize high standards of scholarship, leadership, and character among agriculture students. Its members strive to foster high ethical standards in agriculture and have been recognized because of their scholastic accomplishment, service, and high standards. Delta Tau Alpha travels to area high schools with hopes of encouraging interested student to pursue an agriculture program on the university level. The members assist with an agriculture assembly and awards day and present the outstanding Freshman Award at the Annual Spring Banquet. Possibly most unique aspect of this organization is its sponsoring of a teacher-course evaluation program which has merits that all departments should possibly consider.

The major goals of Epsilon Pi Tau are to recognize outstanding skills, to promote social and professional proficiency, and to foster and reward research. Primarily composed of industrial-management and industrial arts majors, the group's meetings are held bi-monthly. Annually they sponsor a sale as a fund raising project.

To be eligible for membership applicants must have a 2.0 cumulative average with a 3.0 average in industrial arts and must be in the second semester of their sophomore year with a minimum of 16 hours in industrial arts. Officers for the year are: John Cunningham, President; Richard Lindsey, Vice-President; Charles Jewell, Secretary; Thomas Sterritt, Treasurer; James Patrick O'Neal, ASB Representative.

GAMMA BETA PHI

Gamma Beta Phi, the collegiate honorary Beta Club, has as its primary purpose the advancement of educational ideals, the encouragement of scholastic effort, and the rewarding of academic merit among college students. The organization's two service objectives are to encourage and assist college students in the maintenance of academic excellence in college courses and to assist and encourage qualified high school students to continue their education beyond high school. This year Gamma Beta Phi has adopted a Korean youngster through the Foster Parent Plan. The members sponsored a child at the ASB Christmas Party and held a banquet in December. One of this organization's more worthwhile services has been the much needed assistance its members gave during registration. Officers for the year are: Lana Tucker, President; Rita Wells, Vice-President; Ann Adams, Secretary; Beth Callahan, Treasurer; and Janice Lusk, ASB Representative.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Alpha Pi chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi is a national home economics society dedicated to furthering the best interests of home economics. Membership is open to those who show evidence of superior qualities and potentialities of leadership, with a 3.2 in home economics courses and a 2.7 cumulative average. Kappa Omicron sponsored the sale of mums for Homecoming, had a Founder's Day Banquet, monthly professional programs, a Mother-Patroness service, and a program for assisting needy families. Officers for the year are: Marie Smythia, President; Donna Frost, 1st Vice-President; Ann Akin, Recording Secretary; Sharon Ellis, Corresponding Secretary; and Susan Willis, Treasurer.

The future of Epsilon Gamma Chapter of Kappa Pi is already bright. One of their most outstanding activities this year was an auction of student and faculty work which resulted in the donation of eleven hundred dollars to the three-dimensional area of the department. The club sponsors three painting exhibits annually. Their activities this year aided in the achievement of their goals which were: to be a service organization to the area, to unify the department by creating an atmosphere of student-faculty fellowship, to sponsor the art club, and to organize special Kappa Pi shows in the area. In addition to planning a trip to Washington, other activities have included art shows and sales, discussion groups which probe modern problems and invitations to guest speakers.

LAMBDA TAU

Lambda Tau is an honorary society open to students showing an interest in the field of medical technology. Membership requirements are a cumulative average of 2.78 with a minimum of 30 semester hours. With no regular meeting dates, the organization meets when arrangements have been made for guest speakers and films of interest. This year's project was the successful sponsoring of a visit by the bloodmobile to the MTSU campus. Officers for the year are: Rodema Douglas, President; Garry George, Vice-President; Patricia Hooten, Secretary; Linda Trent, Treasurer; and Pat Clayton, ASB Representative.

The MTSU Accounting Society accepts for membership those students who have completed two semesters of accounting with a 3.0 in accounting and a 2.5 cumulative average. The Society assembles monthly, occasionally holding dinner meetings and entertaining guest speakers. Its members participated in Club Night and sponsored a child for the ASB Christmas Party. In the spring all enjoyed a picnic and softball game. The society strives to instill in its members a desire for self-improvement, to foster high moral and ethical standards in its members, to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence, to promote the collegiate study of accounting, and to provide opportunities for association and fellowship among its members. Officers for the year are: Johnny Johnson, President; Alton Fisher, Vice-President; Patricia McClanahan, Secretary-Treasurer; and Joe Carlton, ASB Representative.

PHI MU DELTA

The purpose of Phi Mu Delta is to encourage excellence in scholarship among pre-medical students and to stimulate an appreciation of the importance of pre-medical education in the study of medicine. The organization also serves to promote cooperation and contact between medical and pre-medical students and educators in developing an adequate program of pre-medical education and to bind together similarly interested students.

The activities of the year included meetings with speakers of interest to the members, dinner forums, films, trips to hospitals, medical and dental schools, and meetings in cooperation with other societies in Tennessee. During semester break the members put to use many of the skills and techniques they had learned by performing kidney surgery on an animal, using materials donated by area hospitals. Officers for the year are: Richard Anderson, President; Jimmy Norris, Vice-President; Sam Ashby, Secretary; Richard McCauley, Treasurer; and Garry George, Historian.

PHI MU ALPHA

Phi Mu Alpha is a fraternity open to any male member of the university at large who is interested in music. Projects included the sale of candy to aid retarded children, participation in Homecoming festivities, Vet's Club Talent Show, and the Fine Arts Festival. As a part of the ASB Ambassador Program they traveled to Chattanooga and Columbia High School and Junior College. In March they treated the campus to an outstanding performance.

PI SIGMA EPSILON

The Alpha Phi Chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon is a collegiate sales and marketing fraternity designed to give practical experience to the college member and to provide him with an opportunity to meet professional men in the field. A student is eligible for membership if he is majoring in business administration or marketing management and has at least a 2.0 average. This year the members sponsored a sales seminar for the professional men of Middle Tennessee, obtained sales rights at the Grantland Rice Bowl, and participated in the Homecoming parade and club night. With an enthusiastic pledge class of 57 they promise to be most active again next year. Officers for the year include: Thomas Graves, President; Dan Waggoner, Vice-President; Gary Barnett, Secretary; and Jim Maynor, Treasurer.

PI OMEGA PI

Gamma Chi Chapter of Pi Omega Pi is part of the American Association of College Honor Societies and is dedicated to the preparation of better qualified business education majors. Gamma Chi has participated in a varied program of activities this year. In addition to monthly meetings which feature prominent speakers, the organization sponsored an orphan at the Christmas Party, entered a project in the National Awards Program, conducted the Middle Tennessee area typewriting contest, and ran a coat check at Fun Night. The Gamma Chi Chapter is ranked fourth in national comparative evaluation of over 120 chapters of Pi Omega Pi. An active organization, Pi Omega Pi makes a valuable contribution both to its members and to the campus as a whole. Officers for the year are: Wanda Brown, President; Emmett Toombs, Vice-President; Linda Wiseman, Treasurer; and Dianne Beadle, Secretary.

Composed of graduate and undergraduate members, the Sigma Club is the oldest Club on Middle Tennessee's campus. Developed from the Research Club, the organization requires its members to have at least sixty hours and a minimum cumulative average of 3.0. Strictly an honorary society, the club has a minimum of social activities, including two rather unique initiations and a banquet in May. The club meets monthly to bring its members together to discuss campus and other issues and to exchange ideas. The accent of these discussions is on things both intellectual and spiritual. Their major yearly project is sponsoring a free tutoring service in conjunction with Tau Omicron. Officers for the year are: Ronald Tennant, President; James Garner, Vice-President; and Stanley Spraker, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Tennessee Zeta Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu is composed of members who have at least twenty hours of social science courses with no less than a 3.0 cumulative average. The primary purpose of this organization is to stimulate interest in the social sciences. This is achieved by membership initiations each spring, monthly meetings, a spring banquet, and encouragement of participation in campus activities by its members. A relatively new organization on the campus, Pi Gamma Mu is certain to add to the academic environment of MTSU. Officers for the year are: Robert E. Martin, President; James Lind, Vice-President; Lucy Honey, Secretary; Linda Myers, Historian; Doug Bennett, Sgt.-at-Arms; and Thomas Carter, ASB Representative.

Tau Omicron, MTSU's women's honor society, attempts to foster fellowship, scholarship, achievement in educational work, and campus leadership among its members. This year, in conjunction with the Sigma Club, they have sponsored a free tutoring service open to any student on campus. Besides sponsoring a child at the ASB Christmas Party, Tau Omicron maintained a loan fund for its members and sponsored the campus All-Sing in March. The organization's service project this year was the placing of plaques in all the women's dorms telling of the persons for whom the dorms were named. T.O.'s rather interesting initiations were held both in the spring and fall. In honor of their alumni members, the girls held a Banquet in the late spring. Officers for the year are: Marilyn Ensley, President; Elizabeth Kennedy, Vice-President; Janie McNabb, Secretary; Linda Worden, Treasurer; Jane Franklin, Publicity Chairman; Elaine Lehr, Historian; and Susie Latane, ASB Representative.

INTERSORORITY COUNCIL

The Middle Tennessee State University Intersorority Council is composed of the presidents and two representatives from each of the five sororities on our campus. The purpose of the I.S.C. is to govern the sororities and to establish their rushing policies. The I.S.C. hosted a tea for freshmen women in the fall in cooperation with the A.S.B.'s Freshman Week. In conjunction with the Interfraternity Council, the I.S.C. planned and produced the first annual "Greek Week-End," which was held in the spring semester. The primary objective of the Council at present is to establish a Panhellenic Council since all of the sororities are now nationally affiliated.

I.S.C. MEMBERS: On Floor: Ruth Salisbury, historian; Diane Bruce, president; Sue Selby, ASB house representative; Rosemary Escue. Seated: Linda Johnson, Jo Ann Campbell, Jenny Jones, Dianne Waggoner, secretary; Jan Williams, treasurer;

Judy Rayburn, Dean Martha Hampton, advisor; Nancy Helberg, first vice-president. Standing: Beth Calahan, Jinx Demetros, Beebe Bryant, Julie Alexander, second vice-president.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Middle Tennessee State University Interfraternity Council is a working body of representatives from all of the fraternities who combine efforts in an attempt to strengthen the fraternity system as a whole. They undertake the leadership in planning and regulating rush in order to benefit each of the groups in the best manner possible. The I.F.C. promotes the intramural program on campus by giving trophies for winners of individual sports and by giving an All-Sports Trophy to the fraternity with the best over-all record in all sports competition. The I.F.C. also spearheaded the drive for the first Greek Week-End to be held on our campus. Held jointly with the I.S.C., the week-end was a tremendous success, highlighted by games, acts, and the "Bar-Kays." The I.F.C. has been under the direction of David Maskewitz, president, this year.

BLUE RAIDERS HAVE DISAPPOINTING SEASON

Mathews dashes for a few extra yards.

Pensacola Navy's scrambling quarterback, Roger Staubach, plus M.T.S.U.'s floundering pass defense, combined to give the Blue Raiders a loss in the first game of the season.

A full house gathered at Horace Jones field to witness a quarterback who was something special, but many weren't sure if it were 1963 Heisman Trophy winner or Fran Tarkington, the king of scramblers. Both Pensacola scores came on long passes after Staubach was forced to scramble out of the pocket.

The Blue Raiders came alive offensively in the fourth quarter by moving the ball 46 yards in seven plays terminating in an 18-yard touchdown pass from Dickie Thomas to Steve Colquitt.

Gene Carney led M.T.S.U. rushers with 69 yards in three carries. Taylor Edwards gained 55 yards in 11 tries and caught three passes for 44 more yards.

Hunter Harris and Gary Draper stood out on defense for the Raiders with 12 and 11 tackles, respectively.

The Blue Raiders grabbed the first win of the season by downing Morehead 27-18 . . .

Edens, Harris, and company stop 'em cold.

Carney speeds past tackler.

. . . Although Coach Murphy thought his Raiders could do better, he was complimentary of both the offense and defense units.

Defensively, Murphy singled out secondary defender Don Ward for a good job, and put the bee on linebacker Hunter Harris for doing an excellent job. Harris intercepted a Morehead pass and was credited with 13 individual tackles.

Gary Draper was picked OVC defensive player of the week for his performance against the Eagles. Draper intercepted two Morehead passes and knocked down another. Gary also blocked an Eagle extra-point attempt.

Gene Carney, who got off one good run against the Eagles had injury trouble again, thus leaving nearly all of the tailback work to Taylor Edwards.

Edwards came through with 92 yards in 24 carries plus three receptions for 47 yards.

Late in the third quarter quarterback Dickie Thomas was injured by a blow to the head. Although the injury was not serious, Thomas was not able to play the remainder of the game. Second team quarterback Bobby Gatlin came in for the Raiders and did a good job.

Quarterback Roger Catarino and wingback Bucky Wolford teamed up to lead the University of Chattanooga Mocs over the Blue Raiders, 28-15.

Chattanooga, scoring a touchdown in every period, drove 63 yards in the opening period with Robert Smith plunging over from the one for the score . . .

Overton gets ready to go back in.

. . . The Mocs' second TD came on a 92-yard drive with Wolford scoring his first of three touchdowns by catching a one-yard pass from Catarino for the tally. Catarino hit Wolford again for a touchdown in the third stanza, this one covering 24 yards.

Chattanooga wasn't through as they turned in another 92-yard score in the last period with Wolford scoring from 11 yards out.

Down 28-0, the Blue Raiders finally got on the scoreboard by getting two quick touchdowns with the aid of pass interference calls. One penalty put the ball on the Chattanooga two-yard line and Taylor Edwards took it in from there.

M.T.S.U. drove back to the 17-yard line and another pass interference call on the six where Edwards came through again with a touchdown. Kevin Tucker kicked the first extra point and quarterback Dickie Thomas ran the other.

Thomas hit 15 of 33 passes for the Blue Raiders for 164 yards and added 72 rushing.

Eastern Kentucky's nationally ranked Colonels socked it to Middle Tennessee 49-21 by handing the Blue Raiders their third defeat of the season in four starts.

Led by Jim Guice, the Colonels struck early with a touchdown in the first quarter, added the point on the toe of Jim Pullins and were obviously off and running to an easy victory . . .

Edwards goes hard.

Thomas, deciding to pitch or keep.

Touchdown.

. . . But the Blue Raiders didn't give up that easily. With Dickie Thomas directing the attack from the quarterback spot, the Raiders came through for a first quarter score, Kevin Tucker booted the point after and M.T.S.U. was back in it, 7-7. But this was soon to be changed by the fired-up Colonels.

Eastern got seven more quick points in the second quarter, added seven more before that period was over to lead 21-7 at halftime. M.T.S.U. tried to stay with the Colonels in the second half but the Raiders defense had nothing with which to contain the Kentucky attack.

"Murray is as good as any team we have played including Eastern and Chattanooga," said Coach Charles Murphy following a 35-13 defeat at the hands of the Racers.

One of the reasons Coach Murphy made this statement was the impressive role played by Murray State's quarterback, Larry Tillman, who passed for 209 yards and ran for 14 more against the Blue Raiders.

Murray scored the first time it got the ball, going 64 yards in 13 plays with Tillman scooting in from the one for the Racers' first tally.

M.T.S.U. battled right back, however, when Gary Draper intercepted a Murray pass in the end zone. Later in the second quarter the Blue Raiders hit the scoreboard the first of their two times with Taylor Edwards going in from the one with 2:15 remaining in the first half . . .

Hold 'em Raiders, hold 'em!

"Oops another'n blocked!"

Kaltoff skips for extra yards.

. . . But Murray hurried before the half ended and raced 65 yards in nine downs to score 24 seconds before the half.

The last half was all Murray State as the Racers scored three times, one on a beautiful over-the-shoulder catch of a Tillman toss by Gerald Young, a two yard run by Russ Hake, and a 31-yard pass interception by Danny Maxberry.

Austin Peay's aggressive Governors made a shamble of what was expected to be a close Ohio Valley Conference football game by stomping the Raiders 46 to 13.

The Raiders scored first with Gene Carney going over from the 14 to cap a 75-yard drive that was kept alive by a 28-yard sprint by quarterback Dickie Thomas.

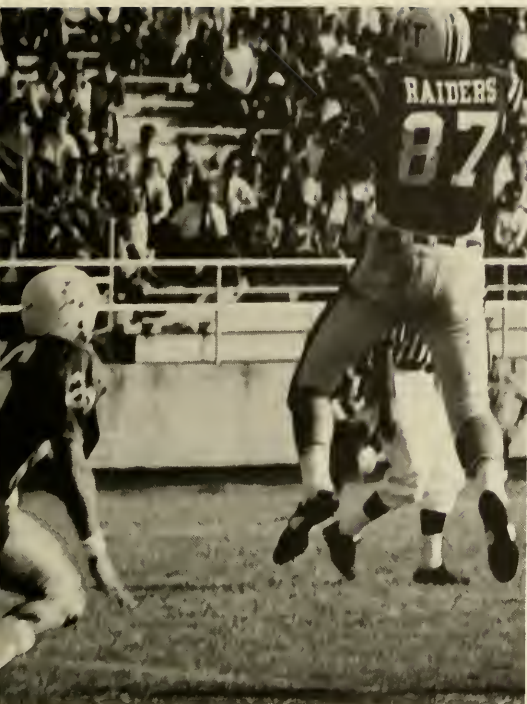

After that, the Govs defense got so tough that M.T.S.U. didn't register a first down until midway of the third quarter, thanks to a pass interference penalty.

The final Raider score came with 1:14 left on a 53-yard pass from Dickie Thomas to Charlie Daniel.

Austin Peay tied the game in the first quarter on a 42-yard pass from Dyer to Ron Fuqua for the score.

The first of three blocked punts gave the Govs a safety and a 9-7 lead seconds after the second period began.

From here to the end of the game, Austin Peay gained five more touchdowns, blocked two more punts, and scored a safety . . .

Daniel leaps to catch a pass.

... The Blue Raiders rallied for 10 fourth quarter points to defeat University of Tennessee at Martin 24 to 17 in M.T.S.U.'s homecoming.

The large crowd of spectators present saw Mike Townsend set a Raider school record with a 43-yard final period field goal that still took a back seat in the game to a 52-yarder by U.T.M.'s Gene Sides.

Dickie Thomas had a great game at the quarterback spot for the Raiders completing 17 to 27 passes for 230 yards and two M.T.S.U. touchdowns. Thomas also ran for a third touchdown.

The Raiders delighted the crowd by scoring first on a one-yard plunge by Thomas, culminating a 60-yard march that required 12 plays. Jimmy Dunn recovered a Vol fumble on the Raider 40 to ignite the surge.

Martin tied it on the ensuing kickoff when Tommy Baker raced the kickoff 96-yards to paydirt. Robert Hassell matched Kevin Tucker's extra point boot.

A 65-yard pass from Thomas to Gene Carney gave the Raiders a 14-7 lead with 9:27 to go in the half and it was 14-10 at intermission when Sides connected with his 52-yarder with 13 seconds to go.

Martin went ahead 17-14 in the third quarter after M.T.S.U. recovered a Jim Wiggins' fumble on the Vol 12. On third down Tom Kelvy intercepted a Thomas pass and ran 92-yards for a T.D.

Townsend kicked his 43-yard field goal on the second play of the fourth quarter and the score was tied 17-17. The Raiders then won it in impressive fashion, ripping off first downs on five consecutive plays after Sides missed a 38-yard field goal.

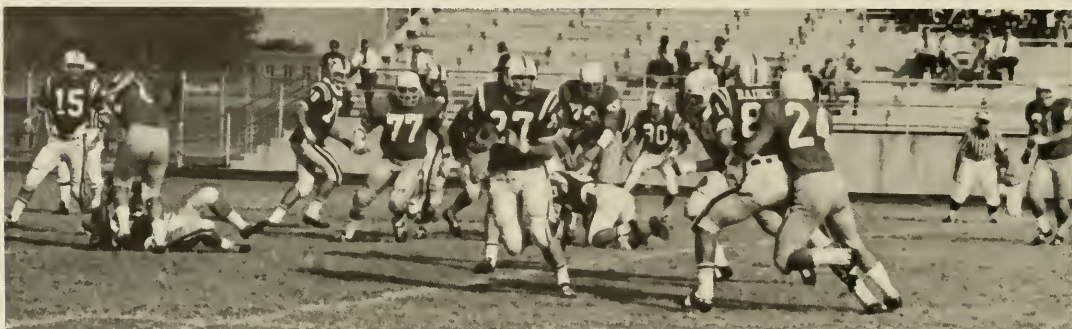

Edwards dives for the touchdown.

James Mathews, playing his first game as monsterman for the Raiders, led the defense as he figured on 12 tackles.

"Our mistakes put us behind and we had to play catch-up ball the rest of the afternoon," said a dejected Charles Murphy after a 43-2 loss handed the Blue Raiders by the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers...

The Hilltoppers scored one touchdown the first quarter, added two more in the second, and went in at the half leading the Raiders 21-2.

The Toppers wasted little time in the third quarter making known their intention of routing the Blue Raiders as they added two more quick touchdowns.

East Tennessee's Larry Graham passed for 237 yards and three touchdowns, the last a nine yarder to Fred Henderson with 2:41 left in the game, to give the Buccaneers a 24-21 victory over the Blue Raiders.

East Tennessee took the lead for the first time, on a third-period 20-yard field goal by Ron Harold. A 54-yard pass from the Raiders' Dickie Thomas to Charlie Daniel put M.T.S.U. ahead until Graham hit Henderson for the winning tally.

Tennessee Tech's ace tailback Larry Schreiber proved to be too much for the Blue Raiders as the Eagles dropped the Bluemen 7-3. Schreiber scored Tech's touchdown on a three yard run, gained 148 yards in 40 carries, and returned two punts for 58 yards.

M.T.S.U. got a three-pointer just before the first quarter ended when Mike Townsend kicked a 46-yard field goal that struck the crossbar and bounced through. That made the score 7-3.

From there on it was just one futile effort after another by both clubs to move in the Eagle mud that was brought about by a cloud burst early Thursday morning.

Statistically, the Eagles had a slight edge in rushing, 194 yards to 171 for M.T.S.U. But, passing balanced it with 55 yards for the Raiders and 16 for the Eagles. First downs were exactly the same: 11-11.

Ron Taylor, punting specialist for the Raiders, was the only player to make All-OVC first team.

CHARLES "BUBBER" MURPHY . . .

A calendar of events will show December 13 as an important date in history. It was on this day in 1577 that Sir Francis Drake left England to sail around the world.

To Middle Tennessee State University football fans, December 13 has another meaning. It was the day in 1968 that Charles "Bubber" Murphy resigned his football post at MTSU after establishing one of the most astonishing records in the nation.

There were many sad hearts on the Blue Raiders' campus when it was announced that the likeable head mentor would step out of his football togs after 22 seasons at the head. But, knowing that Murphy will remain as athletic director assures MTSU of great sports leadership in the years ahead.

In his 22 years of guiding the Blue Raider grid-ders, Murphy had a record of 155 wins, 63 losses and eight ties. Only one, his last season, saw his team lose more games than they won.

Charles "Bubber" Murphy and MTSU football have been synonymous since 1947. Other than his church and family, Blue Raider football was the most important thing in Bubber's life.

Murphy's love for MTSU began in 1934 when he passed up a scholarship at Tennessee Tech to enroll at what was then the Middle Tennessee State Teachers College.

He lettered in four sports as a Blue Raider. Other than football, he was tops in basketball, baseball, and tennis. As tailback, his 67 points scored in 1936 stands as the 3rd highest scorer in the school's history. He tallied 127 points during his three years on the gridiron, becoming the school's first Little All-American representative.

In basketball, he played forward and led the team in scoring in 1936 with 106 points (when 30 points could usually win the game). He was professional AAA caliber in baseball, and his name appears in the 1939 lineups of Jersey City of the International league as a member of the New York Giant organization. . .

. . . Murphy-coached teams captured seven Volunteer State Athletic Conference championships before dropping from that conference after winning the crown in 1957. His team entered the Ohio Valley Conference in 1952, and were champions or co-champions of the eight team league seven of his last thirteen seasons. Four other times, MTSU was runner-up for the loop title. His record against OVC foes was an incredible 73 wins against only 26 losses and two ties.

Four of his teams (1949, 1957, 1959, 1965) posted undefeated campaigns, and four teams participated in post season bowl games. The 1956 squad played in the Refrigerator Bowl, his 1959 and 1961 teams were in the Tangerine Bowl, and the 1964 squad became the first champion of the Grantland Rice Bowl for the NCAA Mid-east College Division Football Championship.

In 1965, Murphy was selected by his fellow OVC coaches as the Ohio Valley Conference "Coach of the Year" and was one of the finalists for the National "Coach of the Year" honors.

His coaching record is not all that will stand for the "dean emeritus" of Ohio Valley Conference football mentors. Few gridgers that played under Murphy during the past 22 years failed to complete their requirements to graduate—a distinction that speaks for itself. More than 50 of his ex-gridgers hold head coaching positions in Tennessee high schools while others are in major college and professional football posts.

Middle Tennessee is fortunate to have a man like Bubber Murphy to continue to lead its athletic program. He leaves his coaching post with neither gold nor silver, but lots of brass.

The students and faculty of MTSU salute Mr. Football—CHARLES "BUBBER" MURPHY!

Bubber receives small college Coach-of-the-Year nominee medallion.

RAIDERS HAVE .500 SEASON

The Blue Raiders ended up the regular season with a 13-13 tally for all games and a 4-10 mark in OVC play which gave them seventh place in the conference.

Leading the Raiders in points scored was Willie Brown who connected on 239 field goals and 127 free throws for a total of 605 points and an average of 23.3 points per game. This brought Willie's total points for three years to 1524 which was good enough to break the all-time scoring record held formerly by head coach Ken Trickey.

A host of other records, both individual and team, were toppled. Besides the all-time scoring record, Willie Brown broke two other records of importance—the highest average for a single season (23.3) and the most field goals made in one season (239). Booker Brown topped the mark for most rebounds in one season, which was set last year by Ken Riley (338), by grabbing 429.

The team was able to crack five records—highest total points, single season (2200), highest average points per game for season (84.6), most field goals made, single season (849), most rebounds, single season (1685), and best rebound average, single season (64.8). The rebound average was good enough to put the Raiders number one in the nation in that category.

Booker Brown makes a lay-up look easy.

Art Polk added tremendous strength to the team by averaging 14.8 points and 11.2 rebounds which put him in the second spot in both categories for the Raiders. Terry Scott and Steve McElhaney averaged 10.5 and 9.2 points respectively with Scott being a defensive standout. Lending bench strength to the Raiders were ball-handling ace Tommy Brown, Darryl "Wild Man" Bentson, Derry Cochran, Roger Fisher and Rick Lasseter.

Spectators who followed the Raiders this season would agree that Lady Luck was not following the Bluemen too closely. A pre-season knee injury to Ken Riley sidelined the all-around ace for the entire season. Last year Riley helped the team greatly by scoring an average of 13.5 points and 14.1 rebounds per game. In the loss department, seven of the thirteen were by a total of only eighteen points, which is about 2.5 points per game; one loss was in overtime.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

McCamey struggles for rebound while Drew looks on.

Coach Jimmy Earle's freshman team posted an impressive record of seventeen wins against seven losses.

Sparking the Raider Frosh was Joe Barclay who averaged 21.3 points and 11.0 rebounds, and Sam McCamey who averaged 14.8 points and 10.9 rebounds. Also in double figures for the Blue were Tommy Legg (18.5) and Jim Drew (17.9).

The Freshmen posted a remarkable shooting percentage of .458 from the field. Individually from the field, Barclay hit .524, McCamey .512 and Legg .492.

The Raider Frosh came on strong late in the season winning their last nine games, including twin wins over Western Kentucky and wins over Austin Peay and Murray State.

Coach Trickey feels that several of these outstanding players will be fitting into the varsity picture next year.

TRACK

According to Coach Dean Hayes, prospects for the track team are looking up this season. The reason for Coach Hayes' optimism is probably the good pre-season showing made by the team members coupled with top returnees from last year.

Jerry Singleton has already run a 48.5 in an indoor 440, which is one of the best in the nation in 1969. He also ran a 1:17.066 which is one of his best ever, and he has run 45.3 in the 440 relay.

David Wyatt is nationally ranked in indoor competition with a 31.1 for the 300 and a 49.4 in the 440. Wyatt is also used in the intermediate hurdles and has run a 47.6 in a relay leg as his best time. John Edwards, who is the OVC champion in the discus with a 162-foot mark, could be one of the best in the nation this year.

Co-captain Charles Dahlgren holds the school record for all distance runs, including a 4:12.5 mile. Lonnell Poole, a versatile athlete, runs 14.5 in the high hurdles and also runs sprints, intermediate hurdles, and a lot of relays.

Managers—Mitchell Chambers and Larry White.

Head Coach—Dean Hayes.

Captains—Dennis Bandy, Jerry Singleton, Charles Dahlgren.

High jumper Phil Gardner.

Poole and Wyatt—two of MTSU's fine hurdlers.

Terry Scott holds the school and TIAC record in the triple jump with 47-3 $\frac{1}{4}$  feet and also has run a 47.6 in the 440 relay.

The mile relay team consisting of Scott, Bandy, Wyatt and Singleton, in 1968 ran a 3:12.0, but if their best times were put together they could possibly come up with a 3:09.7 this year.

Poole, Wyatt, Scott and Singleton will team up for the 880 and sprint-medley relays. Coach Hayes feels that they should easily break both school records and place high in the big meets.

TENNIS

The Blue Raider tennis team will go into the season this year seeking their fourth straight Tennessee Intercollegiate Conference title. For the past three years the Raiders have won the TIAC crown and last year they brought home the runner-up trophy from the OVC tournament.

Coach Buck Bouldin, now in his sixth year as head mentor, has done a remarkable job with the Raider net team. Prior to his accepting the reins at MTSU, the Raiders had won only two matches in four seasons. His MTSU won-lost total now stands at 61 wins and 22 losses including a 11-7 mark last season.

Captain for the team this year will be Tom Magner, a junior from Orlando, Florida, who last year in the TIAC finished number one in doubles competition. Rounding out the squad are two seniors, Mike Albano and Chich Fuller, one sophomore, Charlie Beckham, and three freshmen, Lee Mayo, Jim Burgener and Paul Valentincic.

GOLF

The Blue Raider golf team, under the direction of Coach E. K. Patty, will be going for their tenth TIAC and OVC crown this season. In the past ten years Coach Patty's teams have gone 71-3-1 in dual match competition. Coach Patty, who is also business manager of athletics, has been "OVC Coach of the Year" five times in the last seven years.

In early-season play in the Senior Bowl tournament—the seventh, eighth, and ninth of January—the Raiders finished second to 1968 NCAA champs the University of Florida. Individually, Jeff Riley placed second in the tournament.

This year the golf team will be moved into the University division of the NCAA tournament. Previously in the college division, the Raider team has finished first once in the tournament, and on two occasions Raider golfers have won the individual crown.

BASEBALL

The Blue Raider baseball team came into the 1969 season as defending Ohio Valley Conference champions. Last year's team won the OVC championship and came within one run of participating in the national championship when they gained the finals of the NCAA Mid-East College Division Tournament.

Head coach for the Blue Raiders, Jimmy Earle, is in his fourth season of heading up the baseball team. Coach Earle's 1968 team had the greatest season ever for a Blue Raider squad. Coach Earle was selected as OVC's "Baseball Coach of the Year" in 1968. His won-lost record for three seasons is 48-31. Last year's team posted a 23-9 campaign.

Captain for the team this year is Brady Straub. Last year Straub posted a .303 hitting average and a .964 fielding average.

Leading the team last season in both hitting and fielding was first baseman Tom Brightwell. Brightwell hit .328 and averaged a .979 fielding percentage. Straub and Brightwell are two of the thirteen returning lettermen who will pace the year's team.

INTRAMURALS

The Intramural Program at MTSU is a service provided by the institution under the auspices of the Health and Physical Education Department. It generally includes all sports and activities for which there is student demand, although the primary emphasis has been on the highly competitive team and individual sports.

Traditionally, the Intramural Program has endeavored to provide a competitive athletic program with a recreational flare. Campus groups including fraternities, sororities, church groups, clubs, independent, and faculty groups participate during the entire academic year, as well as during summer school, in the following activities: flag football, volleyball, swim meets, basketball, track and field meets, softball, tennis (singles, doubles and mixed doubles), badminton (singles and doubles), pool, table tennis (singles and doubles), handball, tug-o-war, foul shooting, relay carnival, and the hole-in-one tournament.

Another activity only recently offered through the Intramural Program is Sigma Delta Psi. Sigma Delta Psi is a national athletic honorary fraternity for undergraduate and graduate men. Middle Tennessee State University is recognized as the Zeta Gamma chapter which has only been on campus slightly more than a year. Requirements for admission include a series of physical and athletic feats in a variety of sports activities. It takes a complete and versatile athlete to pass the minimum standards for membership.

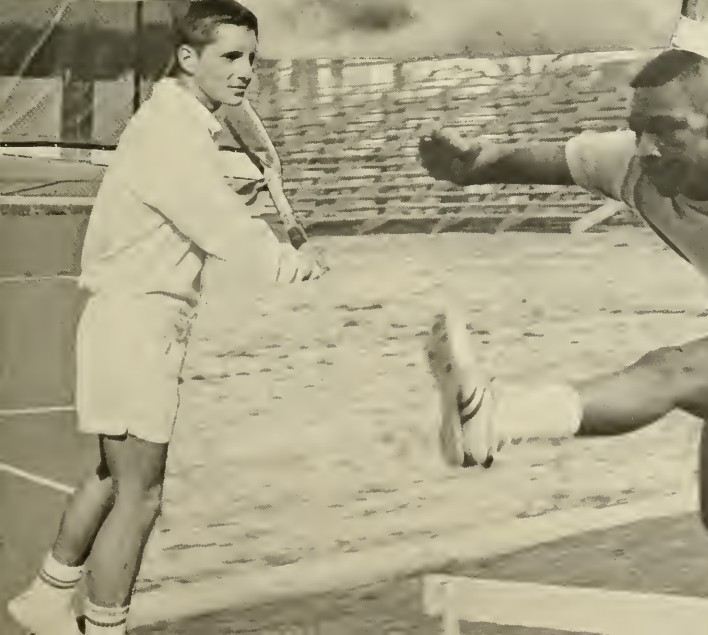

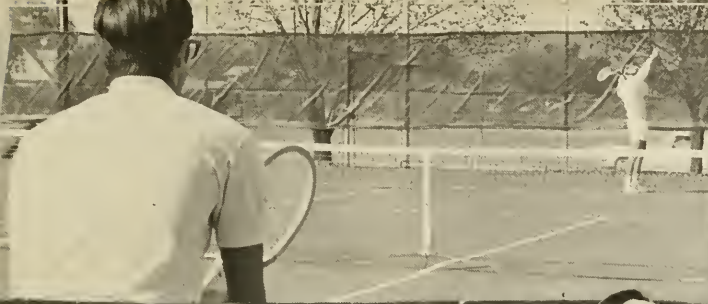

A very popular facet of the Intramural Program is the extramural competition conducted with neighboring institutions. The girls always have an outstanding basketball and volleyball team and have represented MTSU well in extramural competition. The annual extramural flag football game between MTSU and Tennessee Tech champs has grown into a tradition since its inception six years ago.

Flag footballers prepare to play.

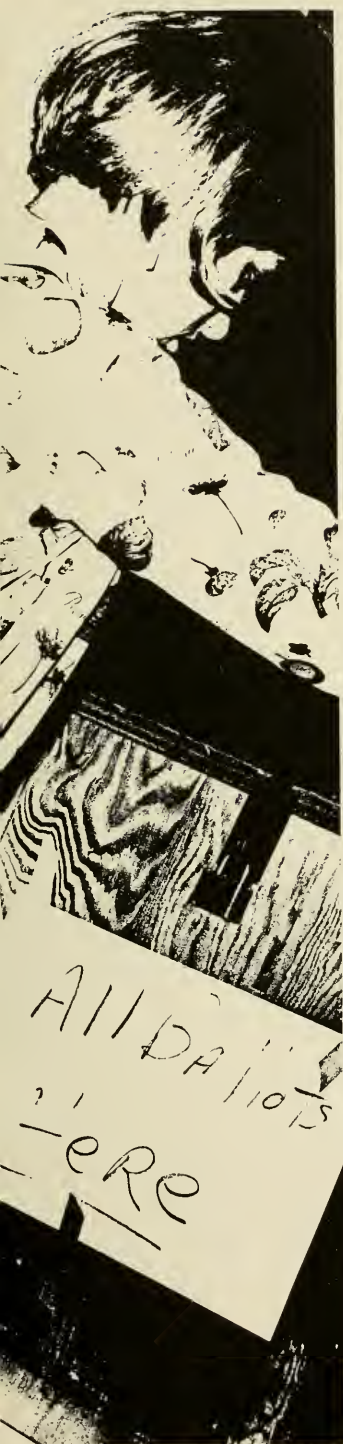

Volleyball is a popular sport among students.

1968-69 has indeed been a progressive year for the MTSU Associated Student Body. The body, which has in the past been little more than a social organization, has this year proved that student government has an important and beneficial place. Concerned with improving the communications gap between the student body and the administration and faculty, President Jim Free has been fortunate in the cooperation he has received from MTSU's new university president. Because of the efforts of the ASB, most university committees now contain voting student members, often in a fifty-fifty ratio.

When the women students came to the student governing body with appeals for the reform of the rather antiquated Coed Codes, President Jim Free conscientiously took up the issue and got active support for the revision of the Codes. As a result, President Scarlett has set up a committee composed of both students and faculty members to review all university rules and policies.

As proof of the students' growing concern for the quality of education at MTSU a student evaluation of the faculty was put into effect in mid-March. Under the direction of House Speaker Patrick O'Neal, the program, although confronted by some opposition, was undertaken with the idea in mind of letting the instructors know how their students rated them as to teaching ability. It is hoped that the program will be a forerunner of future evaluations.

Probably the most important of the ASB's activities was its efforts at self-revision. The idea of a unicameral legislature, to replace the cumbersome and unequally represented House and Senate, was put forward in the hopes that the Associated Student Body might, in future years, become a more effective and beneficial voice of the students at MTSU. With the start the group has gotten this past year, future student governments should be better able to fulfill their obligations to the student body.

ELECTION COMMISSION

The Election Commission completely runs all student elections. This year they increased efficiency at the polls by moving them upstairs into the UC lobby. With the coming of voting machines for the Superlative Elections, a maximum of speed and efficiency was maintained.

Composed of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices appointed for the duration of their stay at MTSU, the Supreme Court serves as the judicial branch of the student government. As a student court, truly coming into its own this past year, the group hears appeals from the Dormitory Councils and acts as a recommendation board on cases submitted to it by University deans.

FRESHMAN AFFAIRS

Composed of upperclassmen, this committee works throughout the summer months to draw up a schedule of activities to orient freshmen to the campus. These include Freshman Week, an ISC Tea, an IFC tour of fraternity houses, the freshman talent show, picnic, campus tours, mixers, and the President's Reception.

ASB HOSTESSES

The ASB Hostesses are the official hostesses for ASB and other university functions. This year one of the group's functions was to serve as receptionists at various alumni activities during Homecoming. This bright group of university coeds repeatedly put many an MTSU visitor at his ease while he was on campus.

COMMUNICATIONS

This group of students is responsible for keeping the student body abreast of the activities of the ASB. Publishing special bulletins available to all students, releasing statements to the SIDELINES, and providing publicity for special ASB functions were a few of the group's responsibilities this year.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

In an attempt to reverse the growing tendency for MTSU to leave school spirit to a small group of students, this committee has put forth a concerted effort to channel the spirit of all students towards supporting MTSU, not only at sports events, but in all aspects of university life.

Front: Margaret Duncan, Dianne Waggoner, Connie Parkhurst, Carole Moore, Sandy Rooker. Back: John Polk, Bart Gordon, Lynn Cook, Marianne Weathers, Sandra Baugh, and Claudia Waller.

Seated: Carol Patton, Nancy Chapman, Beebe Bryant, Betty Ann Hart, Jeanee Seals, Ann Shipley, Anita Johnson, Diane Gannon, and Marlene Campbell.

CORRESPONDENCE

This devoted group of girls somehow managed to keep track of the great amount of correspondence that filtered in and out of the ASB offices this year. Their organization and efficiency made them an indispensable part of the ASB.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

1968-69 proved to be a very successful year for the Student Affairs Committee. Charged with bringing big-name entertainment to the MTSU campus, the committee presented such groups as "Mitch Ryder, and the Detroit Wheels," "Martha and the Vandellas," "The Impressions," and "The Platters." The committee brought in the groups, publicized them, sold tickets, and ushered the shows.

SENATE

Working in cooperation with the House in passing legislation and recommendations, the Senate this year was perhaps more active than it ever has been previously. Sustaining the spirit of reform on campus, this concerned group was a prime mover in the fight for liberalization of the Coed Codes, besides maintaining an enthusiastic interest in all phases of student government concerns.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Besides meeting weekly to discuss and vote on legislation, the House serves as an open forum for the exchange of ideas between students, student organizations, and the ASB. In line with the ASB's attempt to delineate the role of the ASB in MTSU's total program, the House undertook a faculty evaluation project this spring. Along with the Senate, the House has been active in helping the ASB to find its spot in the total MTSU.

1969 MIDLANDER

A pile of layout sheets, copy paper, and a dummy that will be changed endlessly as the year progresses: these, and a few shadowy ideas are the raw materials that go into the compilation of a year's happenings and memories. Difficulties, a good idea—too late! Getting twenty people and a photographer in the same place at the same time, rain on the day the color pictures were to be made. Problems, lack of communication, general frustrations—all are forgotten when that last page goes to press, and a nondescript heap borders on becoming a reality.

COLLAGE

Collage appeared this year for the first time as an independent student publication. Using poetry, essays, short stories, and photography, COLLAGE editors added features and reports of interest to the magazine to form a worthy addition to the publications of this campus. With an editorial point of view separate from the SIDELINES, the COLLAGE has developed into an individual personality meeting the requests of interested students. This year only one special edition was distributed, the Fine Arts Festival Issue, but there are hopes for more as the magazine grows.

SIDELINES RATES ALL-AMERICAN

A new office, eight a.m. campus distribution, students setting the copy, two editions per week, endorsement of a presidential candidate, active support of student government issues . . . all added up to a year of change for this student oriented and operated newspaper.

No small part of the credit for the SIDELINES' first All-American rating was due to the organization of the staff. Volunteer workers served on one of two staffs—business or editorial—with the business manager and editor-in-chief directly in charge of their respective responsibilities.

From the selling of advertising and the setting of the stories in type to the assigning and editing of the copy, the SIDELINES attempted to operate as much like a city daily as possible.

Managing editors Carla Neal, Jonelle Parsley, and David Page make up pages for an up-coming edition of the SIDELINES.

Jackie Crowover, Spring Business Manager

Wanda Ensor, Feature Editor, and Michael Goforth, News Editor, set headlines on the newly acquired Varityper.

Other members of the staff include Jimmy Piedra, William Smith, Ann Sutton, Greg Patterson, and Don Brooks.

Looking through the files at earlier editions are Donna Hanvy, Charles Gonce, Marie Welsh, and Jenny Tenpenny.

Assisting in the production or make-up of the newspaper twice each week are Paulette Fox, Mary Alice Wright, Shelia Alford, and Brenda Heller.

Karen Thomas, Chuck Snyder, Linda Judd, Walter White, and Esther Sims handle the advertising and circulation activities.

SIDELINES

TREBLE CHORALE

The Treble Chorale was organized primarily for women students who are not music majors to have an opportunity to sing in concert and for their own enjoyment. At Christmas and in the Spring the group presented two outstanding concerts. Under the direction of Dr. Harold Slagle, the Chorale also prepared and presented musical programs to high schools in the area. The Chorale has provided wonderful entertainment for both members and audiences.

UNIVERSITY-COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Earl Hinton, the University-Community Orchestra offers students, faculty members and community citizens the opportunity to play together in a full orchestra. Through concerts, given regularly, at Christmas, and in the spring, the community has been able to experience some of the world's greatest orchestral music. In addition the joint university-orchestra group provides students with the opportunity to play regularly with more experienced musicians.

SACRED HARP SINGERS

MTSU's talented Sacred Harp Singers sing a capella, seated around a table, in Sixteenth Century madrigal style. Their repertoire consists of early English madrigals and folk songs, Sacred Harp hymns, white spirituals, and Southern folk songs and ballads. As they have in the past eighteen years, the group recorded a program of Christmas music for WSM radio. The group also performed in Spring Concert, and gave three outstanding performances at the first Tennessee Folk Festival in Johnson City. The members were also active participants in the Fine Arts Festival held at MTSU in February. The group is well known throughout the South for its numerous concert appearances and broadcast programs.

CONCERT CHOIR

The Concert Choir was organized at MTSU to provide interested students with the opportunity to perform fine choral literature. It has since become an integral part of the music program. Under the direction of Neil Wright, the group performed in concert on the MTSU campus in the fall and spring. They also traveled to area high schools for concerts, especially in Nashville and Chattanooga.

LAUNDRY

BAND OF BLUE

One of the unique campus organizations, MTSU's "Band of Blue" possesses traits of originality and versatility with regard to its musical group as well as with regard to the variety of its performance responsibilities. Composed of both music and non-music majors, many band members participate as non-credit performers, and some are leaders in other campus activities. With tri-weekly rehearsals and performances on and off the campus, the "Band of Blue" has developed an extremely strong group feeling.

This year the band performed at football games and in the Grantland Rice Bowl at MTSU and at the Chattanooga and Western Kentucky games on the road. Its members also participated in the Homecoming and Veterans' Day parades. The precision demonstrated in the execution of the many intricate marching formations reflects the hours of practice on the field and the high level of excellence demanded by Joseph Smith, director of the marching band.

At the conclusion of marching season, the Symphonic "Band of Blue," under the direction of Horace Beasley, began rehearsing for the series of concerts it presented in Nashville, Jackson, Savannah, Bolivar, Humboldt, and Milan. The band presented two concerts on campus and provided music for the Presidential Inauguration in May. The Symphonic Band plays music of the best quality that challenges its players and is interesting to its audiences. Hours of intensive rehearsal and careful planning by Mr. Beasley result in a highly polished and professional musical product.

BLOCK AND BRIDLE

The Block and Bridle Club attempts to promote higher scholastic standards among students of animal husbandry. As a group they strive to promote animal husbandry, especially all phases of student work in this area in colleges and universities. Another of the organization's aims is to promote a closer relationship among those who are pursuing some phase of animal husbandry as a profession. The club, as it does each year, sponsored another very successful "Little International" which consisted of a cattle show run by the livestock management class combined with sorority and fraternity activities. Greeks participated in a tug-o-war, goat-milking contest, and a greased-pig chase. Other activities included a spring horse show, working at a cattle show, a barbeque for new club members, and an end-of-the-year banquet with a guest speaker. Officers for the year were: Jim Malone, President; Jerry Mansfield, Vice-President; Pat Jowers, Secretary; Pat Russell, Treasurer; Taylor Holmes, ASB Representative; Billy Joe Wiley, Parliamentarian; Kenneth Phillips, Representative; Jim Ackers, Herdsman.

RODEO CLUB

The MTSU Rodeo Club was organized in 1963 to promote intercollegiate rodeo and an interest in horses. The main concern of the club is to produce a rodeo on campus each spring, featuring cowboys and cowgirls from MTSU and other colleges in the mid-South area.

The club is an active member of the Mid-South Intercollegiate Rodeo Association which produces a match rodeo between college rodeo teams in its area. While the club's main interest is rodeo, many members do not compete. They are instead interested in good horsemanship and good sportsmanship.

Activities for the year included weiner roasts, hayrides, and films and speakers on horses and rodeos.

Rodeo Club members practice for the many mid-South rodeos that they attend.

Today's teachers are a far cry from the long-skirted ones to whom Johnny used to bring an apple.

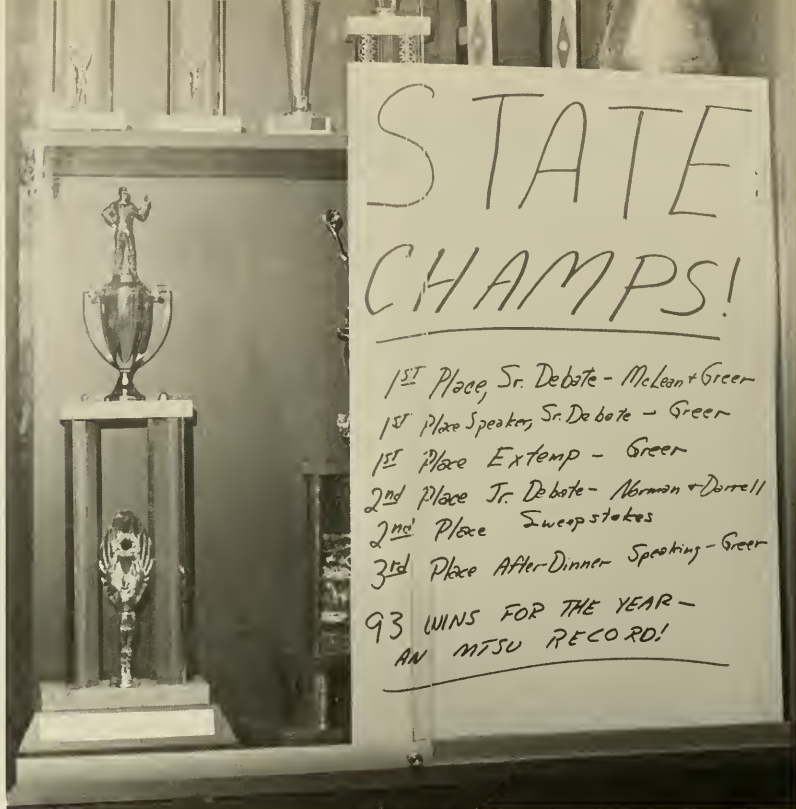

The Student National Education Association attempts to stimulate interest in professional educational organizations and in the profession of teaching on the MTSU campus. This year they initiated a much needed and appreciated tutorial system in the Murfreesboro schools. The organization's meetings featured discussions on juvenile delinquency, mock interviews for teaching positions, and an orientation to the purposes of the Tennessee Education Association. The members gathered for their annual get-together picnic early in the year. Sponsored by two of the education department's most personable members, Mr. Dean Freedle and Dr. Mary Martin, the SNEA is an organization that has much to offer its members.

M. T. S. U. DEBATE TEAM

"Number One in the State" is a proud and just title for the MTSU Debate Squad. In addition to this overall achievement, the team has surpassed many of its records this year. Fred McLean and Lee Greer broke the school record of most consecutive wins . . . sixteen. At the end of the first semester these two had broken the previous season's record of 33-18 by setting their own of 44-17. At the MTSU Junior tournament Ken Darrell and M. A. Norman finished as the only undefeated negative team in the tournament.

Much recognition goes to this team which has compiled an outstanding record after participating in fifteen tournaments.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

Even though their efforts have not reflected success on the national scene, the Young Democrats gave their utmost in campaigning for their party. Through appearances of political figures and discussions in a collegiate atmosphere the Young Democrats have gained and grown politically this year.

Seated: Sylvester Brooks, ASB Representative; Colleen Powell, President; Paulette Fox, Treasurer; Bobby Lynch, Ann Sutton, Secretary; David Mathis. Standing: Charles Gonce, Robert Rucker, Walter W. Wood, David Dearing, Lucile Starks, Gordon Mayfield, Alice Hudson, Walter H. White, III, David Page, Harriet Parsley.

Attempting to promote the ideals and aims of the Republican Party the Young Republicans have accomplished much this year. By holding a debate on the Presidential race they were able to bring into sharp focus the ideals of their candidate. By aiding in bringing Gerald Ford and other political personalities to the campus, the Young Republicans offered all concerned an opportunity to hear leaders of their party.

HOSTS MISS MTSU PAGEANT

Circle K holds the distinction of being perhaps the most active service organization on campus. Their only reason for existing is to be of service to MTSU, and as such, they are a constant center of activity. Activities this year included those all-important campus tours for freshmen, the building of bonfires to warm up Raider supporters at pep-rallies, and participation in both the Biology Club Stunt Night and the College Bowl. Special services included the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children and a spring picnic for orphans. This year Circle K assumed responsibility for the Miss MTSU Pageant.

event held in February. Formerly the Miss Midlander Contest, it had previously been co-sponsored by Circle K and the Midlander staff.

Membership in the organization is limited to young men who have shown promise of ability in campus affairs and who have a sincere interest in belonging to an active service organization.

TRITON CLUB

Though few in number, the members of MTSU's Triton Club meet regularly to become skilled aquatic performers of the art of synchronized swimming. They enthusiastically presented two water shows this year, in December and April, which effectively showed off their skills. Officers for the year were: Richard Thompson, President; Claudia Copeland, Secretary; and Fradonna Phillips, Treasurer.

"T" CLUB

"T" Club members, wearers of the only athletic letters allowed on campus, strive to foster better relationships between athletes and the MTSU student body. This year the club worked with the High School Basketball Tournaments to raise money and gave a Christmas program for the children at the Good Shepherd's Home. Another activity was the annual "T" Club picnic and golf tournament. An active group, the "T" Club is a real boost to Raider spirit. Officers for the year included: Ike Franklin, President; Jimmy Dunn, Vice-President; Brady Straub, Secretary-Treasurer; Ralph Overton, Sergeant at Arms; Clay Holloway, ASB Representative; and as Advisor, Coach Jimmy Earle.

"You want me to Auto-what?"

THE BLUE RAIDER SPORTS CAR CLUB

Since its inception, the Blue Raider Sports Car Club has strived to promote safe driving by giving its members opportunities to discuss the merits of safe equipment and to see and use safe driving concepts. These received practical application both on the street and on the track. Track racing took the form of several Autocrosses—narrow, twisting courses set up with pylons in which each car is maneuvered through the course as quickly as possible without knocking over any pylons. This developed driving skill quickly and safely. Safe driving techniques were practiced on the streets and roads of Tennessee in several Auto Rallyes ranging from 15 to 300 miles in length. Rallye drivers did not race; instead, they tried to follow a complicated list of instructions which eventually led to an unknown destination. This was done while maintaining an average pre-set speed.

Membership in the organization varies, but it is almost certain that the owner of any type sports car will sooner or later be approached to take part in the club's activities.

BIOLOGY CLUB

MTSU's Biology Club welcomes as members those students having an interest in biology. The members' activities for the year included participation in Club Night, the Homecoming parade, sponsorship of a spring picnic for members of the biology faculty, a Christmas party, and a spring picnic for club members; the big project was sponsorship of the Biology Club Stunt Night, to which campus organizations were invited to present original skits before a student audience. The proceeds of the Stunt Night were placed in the George B. Davis Loan Fund.

Attempting to go beyond the classroom, the members of the Chemistry Club have banded together to increase their knowledge of chemistry. They enjoyed lectures by faculty, student, and guest speakers. They frequently could be found spending additional hours in the lab, as well as making field trips to industrial laboratories.

SPELUNKERS

Promotion of cave safety and conservation is the primary interest of the Spelunkers. During the year the members enjoyed special programs on the caves of America, cave explorations, enjoyment, and research. They also investigated methods of preventing cave vandalism. An active and interested group, the Spelunkers does much to further the enjoyment and knowledge of caves by its members.

Since its founding in 1947, the Veterans Club has continued to be one of the most active organizations on campus, sponsoring and participating in a wide range of university activities. In 1954 the club hosted its first talent contest, which has since evolved into an annual event. A beauty contest was added in 1962 to choose a Miss Vets Beauty to represent the club in the annual Miss MTSU Pageant. This year's Vets Beauty was Miss Mary Brock-

Among the activities sponsored by the club were monthly programs for the patients at the V.A. Hospital, sponsorship of an orphan at the annual ASB Christmas party, an entry in the Biology Club Stunt Night, a Homecoming float, and sponsorship of the annual Vets Club beard-growing contest.

PE CLUB

The PE Club meets bi-monthly, striving to promote interest in the profession of physical education. The members represent MTSU at the annual HPER State Convention as well as the Southern District Convention. This organization participated in the Homecoming parade and sponsored a child at the ASB Christmas party. Officers included, as President, Jim Barr; Vice-President, Judy Linville; Treasurer, Edward Solomon; Secretary, Pat Sarver; and Publicity Chairman, Kenny Linville.

TAU SIGMA

Through its activities, Tau Sigma works to broaden interest in the social sciences, to work with the administration in all matters affecting the welfare of the student body, to promote the best possible understanding between faculty members and students, and to perpetuate the traditions of MTSU. The group was able to make donations to La Sabre Indian School and Father Flanagan's Boys' Town through the sale of MTSU pennants. The members also enjoyed a Halloween party, Sewart tour and picnic, a pizza party, and a Christmas get-together.

WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB

To encourage weight training and physical fitness on the MTSU campus and in Middle Tennessee, the MTSU Weightlifting Club was formed in 1967. The chief requirement for entering the club is an enthusiasm for weight training and weight-lifting. The club has been active in intramural sports, social functions, and charity functions on campus.

PRE-LAW SOCIETY

mond, Mike Bottoms, Jeff Sakas, Bobby Elliott, Richard McGregor, Larry Drolsum, Jimmy Smartt, Bob Sands.

Sponsored by the ever active Mrs. Elizabeth Boyers the Pre-Law Society, through the hard work of its membership, has been able to make and maintain contact with practicing attorneys. Through their activities, these future lawyers have a better idea as to whether their choice of field will suit them. The society has achieved much in filling a void previously seen on this campus.

Since its organization in the Spring of 1968, Gamma Epsilon has been active in its attempt to interest students in geography and to expand its members own knowledge of geography. This has been accomplished through their meetings and by means of field trips to points of interest around the state of Tennessee. In the Spring all of the members enjoyed a trip to Mammoth Cave, Kentucky.

GAMMA EPSILON

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

International display at club night.

This unique organization is made up of both foreign students and interested American students. The club is designed to assist foreign students in making an easy transition into campus life and in adjusting to American mores and traditions by promoting occasions for socializing and discussion. Their projects for the year included participation in the Homecoming parade, sponsoring an orphan at Christmas, and International Salad Night, and an orientation program in the form of a tea. Hossein Mansour was the President for the year; Wanda Webb served as Vice-President; Isam Halim was the representative to the ASB.

NCA of SECRETARIES

Seated: Janice Trimble, President; Linda Sue Wiseman, Janice Pope, Vice-President; Pam Zimmerman, Historian; Carole Patton, ASB Representative; Carol Finney, Cheryl Scott, Elizabeth Daniel. Standing: Lucretia Witt, Secretary; Jean Adcock, Janice Britton, Debbie White, Janice Boling, Patricia Delk, Publicity Chairman; Hazel Bloodworth, Carolyn Duke, Jean Stephens, Diane Sullivan, Treasurer; Diane Rooker, Pam Green, Dorris Taylor, Rita Meshtotto. Sponsors are Dr. L. V. Taylor and Mr. Ivey Chance.

This association has as its purpose the exchange of ideas and experiences among students planning secretarial careers. Their monthly meetings encourage achievement of this purpose as well as the guest speakers which they invite from the field of business. The NCAS made several field trips which were designed to help the members grow professionally. They sponsored a seminar for professional secretaries in the area and entertained the campus secretaries at a tea.

EL CIRCULO HISPANO

El Circulo Hispano, which has enjoyed many a Mexican and Spanish oriented program, was organized to promote interest in Spanish and Spanish-American language, culture, customs, music, and art. In addition to regular meetings the members entertained guests from Latin America, had a picnic at the home of their sponsor, and entertained at a Mexican dinner. Probably one of the most original parties this year occurred during their Christmas celebration—Mexican style.

LA SOCIETE FRANCAISE

Though small in membership, the French Club participates in a great variety of activities designed to acquaint its members with the true mode of French life. Membership is open to all those interested in the study of French culture. This year the club co-sponsored the Foreign Film Series and participated in the College Bowl, Stunt Night, and Club Night. In addition, a Spring banquet and Christmas party were held for the members.

Die Deutschen Kameraden

Organized to further interest in the German language and culture through intellectual and social functions, the German Club has continued to grow both in membership and scope of activities. This years activities included participation in Conversation groups, lecture series, the College Bowl, Soccer parties, and co-sponsorship of the Foreign Film Series. This year the members entertained members of the faculty and administration at a November-fest.

STUDENT NURSES ASSOCIATION

The MTSU Student Nurses Association was a natural outgrowth of the nursing program at MTSU. The organization encourages its members to participate in professional organizations, to continue their education, and to work with the campus and the community in an effort to develop a better understanding of today's nursing. They participated in campus activities as well as collecting for UNICEF, hearing guest speakers, and engaging in the recreational activities at the V.A. Hospital.

The Orchesis is the campus' modern dance organization. These girls practice during the year for the various tours and concerts in which they participate. The highlights of this year's activities were performances in the Fine Arts Festival and the World of Dance. Several members also danced in the Phi Mu Alpha concert this spring.

Standing: Beth McLemore, Social Chairman; Leslie Harris, President; Marcy Hess, Juanita Allen, Treasurer; Moonyene King, Sarah Miller. Seated: Diann Dorris, Meridy Drolsum, Carla Neal, Connie O'Connell.

ORCHESIS

GUILD STUDENT GROUP

The Guild Student Group was founded to advance the cause of worthy religious music and to raise the standards of efficiency of organists and choirmasters. In addition, the members of this group are able to meet together to discuss professional topics. In addition to the Guild's annual presentation of Christmas music, the group sponsored its own lecture series on the varying aspects of church music and its playing. The members attended and presented recitals of the Nashville chapter of the Guild.

MENC

Organized to allow its members a voice in the crucial problems of music education, the MENC participates in discussions with educators already in the music field. The organization gives its members a better concept of general music education and its relationship to the rest of the arts. Membership is open to all having an interest in music education.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Ellington Home Economics Building is a home away from home for the girls who spend many hours a week in its various "laboratories."

MTSU's Home Economics chapter, through participation in the promotion of the objectives of the Tennessee and American Home Economics associations, helps its members to meet members of the profession who have attained recognition for their activities in home economics. As it does each year, the club held a party at the beginning of the year to introduce freshman and transfer students to the activities of the program. The annual Career Day, designed to introduce prospective high school students to the home economics program at MTSU, was once again a great success. The members participated in Club Night, Stunt Night, and Homecoming activities, and, to complete a well-rounded year, they placed first in the second annual T.O. ALL-Sing held in early March.

BUCHANAN PLAYERS

The Buchanan Players, responsible for many fine nights of entertainment on the MTSU campus, meet weekly for business and programs as well as nightly when preparing for a play. Open to any student interested in dramatics, both on and off the stage, the Players offer many a night of hilarious happenings and serious business. This year, in addition to the regularly scheduled plays, John Gilpin, Phyllis Murphy, Keith Bronder, Lynn Brown, Pam Owen, and Stan German, under the direction of Mrs. Tucker, formed a touring company which has travelled to Nashville, Columbia, and to Auburn University.

This year seems to have been a record-breaker for the Players, with "Little Me" playing for ten this campus! Another first for the year was the guest direction of the "Adding Machine" by Clayton Hawes. But perhaps most outstanding and remarkable was the set designed by Keith Bronder for "Dark of the Moon." Indeed, with presentations of professional quality such as these and "Carmen," in which all enjoyed George Clinton as Don Jose and Windy Bone as Carmen, the Players have achieved their goals of promotion and cultivation of interest in the dramatic fields. Officers for the year are: John Gilpin, President; Lynn Brown and Phyllis Murphy, Vice-Presidents; Andrea Lindsey, Secretary; and Ronnie Burns, Treasurer.

C.U.B.E.

Organized to help create better understanding among individuals, CUBE has achieved much during its first year of organization. High on their list of endeavors is their tutoring program for elementary school children. Most of the members spend several evenings a week at Holloway School tutoring children whose school progress indicates a need for additional help. Among the group's other activities this year were a Homecoming float and extensive work with the local Human Relations Committee.

AMERICAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION

The American Marketing Association encourages students to choose a career within the field of marketing and stimulates interest and encourages scholarship of students presently in the marketing program. The group's meetings this year have featured guest speakers from various businesses in the Middle Tennessee area. Members were involved with J. C. Penney Co. in Hundred Oaks for the club project in the field of marketing and presented a fashion show in co-operation with Cain-Sloan and White Stag.

This group was organized primarily to make their religion a more integral part of their lives. To this end, they met to hear speakers and to discuss matters concerning their religious lives. Frequently they participate in the activities of the local Cumberland Presbyterian Church. During the Christmas season, this group delighted MTSU neighbors with their caroling. The members also sponsored a child at the ASB Christmas Party. Officers included President David Larkin, Vice President Marsha Plemmons and Area Howard, and Secretary-Treasurer Martha Sullenger.

The Newman Apostolate provides a place for socializing and communication among both Catholic and non-Catholic students. The members meet for Mass on Wednesday nights as well as gathering for a monthly communion breakfast. The Apostolate also visits the V.A. on a monthly basis for activities with the patients. They regularly entertain guest speakers. The group is also active in the intramural sports program. Officers: as President, Robert Eadler; Vice-President, Kelley Sharbel; Recording Secretary, Alice Strobel; Treasurer, Philip Baltz; Sgt. at arms, Pat Jernigan; and as Corresponding Secretary, Linda Sullivan.

Wesley sang its way to first place in the T.O. ALL-Sing.

The Wesley Foundation is a united ministry of the United Methodist Church, the Christian Church, and the Episcopal Church. Its weekly schedule includes Sunday School classes, a Sunday-evening series of programs with speakers, films, panels, and visiting celebrities, and supper on Wednesday evenings which is followed by worship in the Keith Ducker Memorial Chapel. On Friday and Saturday evenings Wesley operates its basement coffee house (which serves fifteen varieties of tea), "Paradox 216."

Outstanding events of the year have included four weekend retreats, a first-place win in the campus ALL-SING, a Wesley-sponsored all-denominational Christmas party with President Scarlett as speaker, campus caroling, a Halloween hayride, spaghetti suppers, and the sponsorship of a worship team carrying a specially prepared contemporary worship service to various churches in Middle Tennessee. Added to these were outings, parties, and other informal gatherings. Of particular interest was the establishment of a new group, "The Experiment," which met twice weekly over supper for Christian fellowship and action.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

In its attempts to minister to the students of MTSU, the Baptist Student Union sponsors a variety of activities in which all students may participate. The group this year sponsored noonday lunches and devotions and Vespers on Wednesday nights, along with special study groups and summer missions. The members raised $1800 which they donated both to home and foreign projects. They participated in the Colorado Work Camp, worked on a Migrant Team to Utah and Idaho, held a Fall Convention, and participated in retreats in the fall and spring. Along with all of these activities, the members remained able to participate in various campus activities.

LOVE, a project designed by students of this group, has this year worked with underprivileged children in several areas of Murfreesboro. This having been their first full year in the Middle Tennessee Christian Center, the group has accomplished much in promoting fellowship and spiritual growth among those college students interested in participating. The group inaugurated nightly devotionals in addition to those traditionally held on Wednesday nights, and was delighted with the response given them. Three Bible courses were added to the group's curriculum of study and recreation. Along with a place to study, a student may find kitchen privileges, color television, and a quiet place to think.

This year the Center operated three houses, two of which they rented to University students. Other activities of the year included special-occasion parties such as at Christmas and on Valentines Day, outings such as hayrides and cook-outs, lectureships, a spring banquet, visitations to shut-ins and elderly persons, and special study groups in the homes of various faculty members. Officers for the year included as president, Glen Belcher; vice-president, Alan Brakebill; secretary, Pat Trisler; treasurer, Barbara Head; and as ASB Representative, Rita Wells.

R. O. T. C. ACTIVITIES

CADET BRIGADE SPONSORS ROTC WORKSHOP

MTSU's ROTC Brigade has in 1968-69 strived to do more than prepare its four levels of cadets for federal inspection. The cadet officers set up offices separate from the instructor group, thus becoming fairly independent, and came up with and successfully carried through several projects new to the program. Of prime importance was the ROTC Workshop, the first of its kind, held in early March. Top schools in the Third Army area were invited for a weekend of planning and discussions. The venture was highlighted by an address by Third Army Deputy Commander Major General W. H. Craig. In May, advanced cadets were given an opportunity to put all that they had learned to use in a War Games which pitted junior and senior cadets against one another in several realistic situations. Seniors came out on top.

ROTC provides specialized training in such fields as communications.

Military Science enrollees soon become familiar with these Army personnel.

Captain Hodges urges cadets to continue into the advanced program.

General W. H. Craig, Deputy Commander of Third Army, addressed cadets from eleven universities during Workshop activities.

The Forrest Raiders gave assembled cadets a demonstration at Sewart AFB of some of the techniques they had learned. Raider Commander Danny Dent dropped in by helicopter.

TRACK AND SABRE-SOCIAL OUTLET FOR ROTC CADETS

The Brigade social organization is the Track and Sabre Club, headed by Cadet Lt. Col. Tom Helton. Its members put on a psychedelic Halloween Dance, a picnic, hayride, and the major social function of the year, the Military Ball. To raise money, members sold charity-raffle tickets, with a Florida trip as prize. The organization was concerned with more than social functions, however, and sponsored a Blood Drive which gave Rutherford County an astounding 799 pints of blood—an outstanding accomplishment.

DRILL AND RIFLE TEAMS PROVIDE CADETS

With a majority of the team being freshmen, the Raider Rifles made a very good impression this year, their record being 7-5. The team shot in matches against Mississippi State, Murray State, Ole Miss, Georgia State, Columbia Military Academy, and Tennessee Tech. MTSU hosted the first annual Volunteer State ROTC Rifle Championships late in the spring semester, to which all ROTC schools in Tennessee were invited.

The Sam Davis Pershing Rifles organization is affiliated with a national drill fraternity, and because of this, attempts to fulfill the extracurricular needs of its members, who frequently march in local parades, being especially busy during the Christmas season. This year the team participated successfully in drill meets at Fort Gordon, Georgia, Tennessee Tech, and Vanderbilt. Their big trip of the year was to New Orleans where they placed second in one of the Mardi Gras parades.

Weekly drill isn't always as bad as it seems. Little problems crop up which are amusing; sometimes even the officers make mistakes, which prove they are human and make the session a little more livable—even in 30-degree weather. And then there are the sponsors. One is always nearby, in a very short skirt, to put a little bit of life into drill routine.

Aviation students put a little life into their ROTC program by learning to fly, on the Army, at the Mid-State Flight School. Mr. Miller Lanier and Capt. Phillips direct the program which teaches cadets principles of navigation, map and compass reading, take-offs and landings, and which accumulates for them many hours of solo flying. Upon commissioning, these cadets will voluntarily apply for Army Aviation Training.

RAIDERS: ACTION!

The Forrest Raiders are the Brigade counter-insurgency unit. By their activities they endeavor to prepare senior cadets for active duty, and junior cadets for the rigors of summer camp. Raiders engage in field training exercises where they are taught various skills, from learning to read and use a compass, camouflage techniques, demolitions exercises, weapon familiarization, bayonet practice, to rappelling. Members presented a demonstration of techniques to cadets attending the ROTC Workshop in early March. During spring break, Raiders traveled to Dahlonaga, Georgia, to attend the Army Mountain Ranger School. With bi-weekly sessions, and frequent field exercises, the Forrest Raiders manage to keep really in shape.

Few people realize the immense difficulty of putting together a remembrance of a year. The high-lights for one person are never the same as those of another. But, from a pile of paper and a few ideas, here is 1968-69, bound up forever in a green cover. My greatest appreciation goes to Mr. Joe Smith, who has more patience with Midlander editors and all the problems they cause than any other one person. Mr. thanks too, to Dr. Pittard, advisor to the Midlander, and to those members of the staff who really came through this year, putting up with my often sketchy direction, hair-brained ideas, etc. My gratitude also goes to all those people at Benson Printing Company, who somehow manage to fit all the puzzling pieces together to come up with the MIDLANDER.
